Campaign Against Tigers.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Boston Red Sox, having broken even in a four-game series with the pennant-winning Senators, open a three-day stand today against the Yankees, the other power in the American League.

If the Sox can do as well against the Yanks as they did against Washington, little doubt should remain as to the important role Bucky Harris' outfit will play in the 1934 campaign.

The Sox celebrated Patriot's Day in Boston by winning both ends of a double-header from Joe Cronin's men. Julian Soilters, a rookie outfielder, blasted a home run in the ninth to win the opener, 5 to 4. In the nightcap a four-run rally in the fifth, featured by Bill Cissell's homer, downed the Senators, 7 to 3.

In the latter contest, Johnny Welch limited the Senator to five hits. Carl Reynolds made four hits in four tries for Boston. Rube Waber made his Boston debut in the morning and gave way to Dusty Rhodes in the eighth.

The Yanks took the series with the Athletics, two games to one, by beating them, 10 to 4, despite two homers by Bob Johnson of the A's. New York collected thirteen hits off Mahaffey, Matuzak and Kline, including homers by Bill Dickey and Tony Lazzeri.

Luke Appling's ninth-inning single, scoring Zeke Bonura with the winning run, gave the White Sox their first victory of the season, a 9 to 8 win over Detroit. Appling's blow followed Bonura's double which allowed Jack Hayes to the score. Charley Gehring made a Tiger's eighth.

Joe Vosmik's eighth-inning homer with Pytlak aboard gave Cleveland a 3 to 2 win over the St. Louis Browns, making it two out of three in their series.

In the National League, the world champion Giants blanked the Philadelphia 2 to 0, for their third straight victory. Phil Collins held the New Yorkers to only four hits, but Bill Terry hit for the circuit in the first inning, and Parmelee's single scored Vosmik in the fourth.

Pittsburgh made it two out of three over St. Louis by beating the Cardinals 14 to 4. They collected nineteen hits off Hallahan, Rhem and Mooney, some of which were bunched for six runs in the fifth and four in the seventh. The Cards contributed five errors. The Cubs downed the Reds for three straight, 4 to 1, after garnering nine safeties off Derringer and Brennan, including Hartnett's homer in the ninth. Pat Malone allowed only five.

Heavy mists halted the Braves-Dodgers' game at the end of the seventh with the score tied 1-all. Spohrer came in on Berger's long fly in the third for the Braves' tally, and Brooklyn's run in the fifth resulted from Koenecke's double and Jordan's single.

Rallies Win for 3 Association Clubs

Kansas City, Toledo and Columbus were out in front in the American Association baseball loop today after winning two games each in their first series of the season.

The Blue appeared destined to defeat St. Paul until the eighth inning yesterday, when they knocked Gene Trout from the box with four hits and as many runs. The score was 4 to 2.

At Toledo the Mud Hens also won their 12-to-9 game with Indianapolis in a late inning rally. The Indians were on the large end of a 9-to-7 score in the seventh, when the Hens connected for five runs.

The Columbus team downed Louisville, 10 to 7, in a close game. The Red Birds clinched their victory in the seventh with a three-run campaign against pitcher Ken Penner.

Cold weather caused postponement of the Minneapolis game at Milwaukee.

WEST SIDE FROSH WIN
Rolling up a total of 66 points, Coach Henry Bouge's Washington freshmen thinly-clad triumphed over Manual's first year squad in a dual meet at the south side field yesterday.

Sir Thomas May Be Fourth Maiden Victorious in Derby

Sol Slagel Pitted With Dick Lever
in Armory Tussle

Roland Kirchmeyer to Face
Test in Karl Davis
Thursday Night.

The supporting card to the Gentleman Joe Cox-Charlie Strack feature wrestling match at the Armory Tuesday night was turned into an all-star affair today with the announcement by match maker Lloyd Carter of the Hercules A.C. that nationally prominent mat huskies had been signed for the two earlier tussles.

Sol Slagel, 230-pound Jewish ace from Topeka, Kan., will clash with Dick Lever, 220, experienced grappler from Arizona, in one of the bouts. Slagel comes to the local ring following a successful invasion of the southwest. It will be his first local appearance since he provided a real test for Jim London at the Armory last month.

In the other encounter, the tall Roland Kirchmeyer, who stands six feet, seven inches tall, will oppose Dick Davis, crack Columbus, O., matman, who was a grid star several seasons ago at Ohio State. The bout brings together two former football players, as Kirchmeyer was a grid performer at Oklahoma A. and M. Davis is 6 feet, 2 inches tall.

Carter reports an unusual amount of interest in the Strack-Cox match. Cox comes here boasting a recent triumph over the rough Indian husky, Chief Cheowhok. He recently defeated Matros Kirilenko, another outstanding grappler and he is one of few wrestlers to pin Joe Stecher's shoulders to the mat with the past year. He scales 225 pounds and is hailed as a real powerhouse.

Kirchmeyer is the star man who upset Main Mountain Dean here in three minutes and then returned to whip Dick Raines, the Texas Tornado. He is the only grappler to represent the United States at two Olympic games and he twice held the amateur heavyweight wrestling championship of the United States. Gentleman Joe hails from Kansas City and Strack from Boston.

Betting Returns to New York Paddock

Jamaica Opens Tomorrow
With New System.

By United Press

NEW YORK, April 20.—When Jamaica inaugurates the racing season tomorrow, fans will bet openly for the first time in New York state since passage of the Hughes anti-betting law in 1908.

Open betting was restored yesterday when Governor Lehman signed a bill which draws the teeth of the Hughes law. But wagering will have none of the maudlin vulgarity of the old days. All business with the bookmakers will be conducted in a quiet and orderly manner.

Bookmakers will be assembled in the old betting sheds with their cashiers, sheet writers, change makers and bonded runners. Layers will not be permitted in the clubhouse or on the lawn. About ninety bookies are expected to operate at Jamaica. Each will have an assigned space. Each will display a program with his odds. At the sheds, parimutuel bets will be handled by the money to the bookmaker. He may accompany the money with a slip recording the bet, or he may give the sheet writer the number of his badge.

In paying off, the cashier will hand winners envelopes containing the money. Any layer can take bets from a dollar up. No particular group will be assigned to handle one dollar wagers as in the past. Runners will handle bets for persons on the lawn or in the clubhouse.
